SANFORD HIGH SCHOOL

SANFORD, NORTH CAROLINA

FOREWORD

You may not for long recall all that has happened this year and the past four . . . dashing to classes . . . the pep meetings . . . the basketball games . . . the struggle for math and English . . . the wonderful football games and dances . . . May Day . . . homecoming . . . the Junior-Senior . . . graduation.

All through high school have come fleeting moments of happiness that may be almost forgotten except for some word or picture. It is for this purpose then, to bring back those moments and to let you know what part you played in the drama of Sanford High School, that the Senior Class of 1950 presents . . .

PROPHECY

At last, the rope is down and doors swing open at Temple Theater.

What drama is being enacted? 'Tis the play "Life Can Be Beautiful," starring the Class of 1950 of Sanford High School as that wonderful class has its first reunion after ten years.

Who is that announcing? It's Bob West, our student announcer, who owns and operates Radio Station WWGP—AM, FM, and TV.

But now on with the show, which Bob is calling a variety show, and let's see how true to our expectations it is going to be.

Introducing first a few of our Senior Superlatives: Mr. and Miss Sanford High, Lewis McBryde and Pansy Riddle, now Mrs. Harold Aycock. Lewis is playing pro baseball with the Sanford Spinners while coaching baseball, football, and basketball at Sanford Senior High. Pansy has made a name for herself as a writer and lecturer on child psychology. She has six.

Here are the Best Looking, Jack Murchison and the noted model, Mrs. Rufus Yarborough—Mary Thornton Benson. The last five years "Murk" has been Mr. America.

Now come Pete Lloyd and Harriett West, our Most Popular at S.H.S. in 1950. He has gained world renown in the field of pro football and she has taken Mrs. Holder's place at McIver School, refusing many proposals of marriage.

Who is this? Dottie Clemmer and Wayne Crowson, Cutest, of course. Dottie is quite dignified now that she is in the Metropolitan Opera. Wayne owns Fairview Dairies since Carol Yarborough decided to buy Cobles and spend more time playing the piano.

Next are our models from New York and Paris—the Neatest—Betty Reid Cole and Erving Covert. Bet is modeling in New York for Powers and Conover, while Erving has joined a famous dance team and when not wearing the latest styles appears on Broadway.

Well, it is Mrs. Anderson Cameron—Grace Hunter—and Max Williams. Grace is a happy homemaker with two darlings and Max is teaching English Literature at Duke University.

Tripping forth now is our witty team, Lib Spivey and Sam McNeill. Yes, right from their radio show in Chicago, I present to you the stars of the "Hour of Ham" with Lib and Sam. Flying down with them was another famous person who has appeared on their show—Ronald Bridges, National Amateur Boxing Champion.

We have now a trio from here in Sanford—three grocers, Thomas Lee, Harry Norris, and J. E. Capps, who have taken over the A&P Stores in North Carolina and are really wizards at the business.

Coming now are two competitors in the local drug store business—Gene Hackney and Johnny McBryde. Both graduated from Carolina in 1955, came back, and bought Cole's and Lee Drug respectively. Gene has enlarged Cole's and added a dance floor, thus many customers. Johnny still has the many signatures on the booths, wads of chewing gum under the tables, Crook's Corner, Betty Harrington as bookkeeper, and Bobby Simmons as stock clerk.

The next scene depicts several well-known people. "Soup-Bone" McIver, the present owner of Grafton's and the Sugar Bowl, is quite ill in the hospital. His doctor is none other than Dudley Knight, who leaves him in the care of Superintendent of Nurses Joyce Woolard and members of her staff, which includes Mary Jean Thomas and Louise Ingram. But back to "Soup-Bone"; he doesn't die, but the undertaker, Jimmy Wicker, who is the owner of the Charles P. Rogers Cole Pickard and Wicker Funeral Home, hangs around anyway. Jimmy has an eye for business, you know, and with him is Raymond McDonald. He now owns Frank's Florist.

To Kathryn Keith Wicker. Besides being Jimmy's wife and the mother of twins, she has made a name for herself in the field of art. Her superlative partner back in school, Tommy Brame, has gone even farther. Now he is teaching art in Boston.

Our reunion is not the only reason for Betty Cline and Billy Heins to have an extra happy air tonight. They have just signed a life contract with Ringling Brothers Circus and will go under the title of "The World's Two Smartest, Smallest People."

Says here—Stokes Barksdale and Roger Bradley are next. Here they are. Stokes and Roger studied together at State and then went into business as engineering partners. Willie Burns, their business manager, reports that business is fair. Stokes works; Roger "pats."

And here is Edward Brooks, Sanford's celebrated pianist. He has just finished his fifth concert at Carnegie Hall.

Representing the world of sports are Bobby Stewart and Bill Gilliam. Both are now playing professional baseball.

Who now? Janet Byerly and Ralph Harrington. They are signing on television, radio, Broadway, and in all the famous night spots of New York.

From the fabulous land of make-believe comes Ann Glass. She has the glorious position of costume designer for the two largest movie companies in Hollywood.

Up next are two competitors in the department store business, Carlos Simmons, manager of Belk's, and Billy Wallace, manager of Efird's. With them are their secretaries, Inez Stevens and Vivian Spivey.

Well, here we have Margaret Pruett. Much to our surprise "Teeny" isn't married yet, but just sits at home waiting for Paul, and tending her sister's children.

Sanford's newest and most modern store is owned by Bob Wilson, who has remodeled his father's Furniture Fortress, and business is wonderful. Customers come not only to buy furniture, but to see Carolyn Petty and Russell Wicker sell it.

Quiet, please, three school teachers are here—Mary Agnes Clark, Anne Parke and Margaret Anne White. Mary Agnes and Margaret Anne are teaching in the Sanford Graded School, but Anne will receive her Ph.D. in American History from Cornell next week.

Try not to appear disappointed, but we are all quite shocked at what has happened to our next two guests—Ann Norris and Edwin Farrell. Edwin turned to drinking and gambling after his application to Yale was refused and Ann has taken to narcotics since she lost the last Senatorial election.

Two very prominent men in State affairs are now appearing. Riley Godley is president of the National Association for the Preservation of Wildlife, and Tull Beal has made a name for himself in 4-H Club work, being State Supervisor of 4-H Clubs in North Carolina.

From the business world we have the very successful Bobby Patterson. He is owner of all the hotels in Sanford, as well as a chain in several major cities. The Amateur Tennis Champion, Charles Briggs, is with Bobby tonight, but he says that he is going to turn pro since he has won all the Amateur honors.

At last, Jessie Ann Rice. Everybody remembers "Jesse" as the "Campbell College Widow," and today she is the same friendly and congenial Jessie Ann with her fingers crossed and frequent visits to Campbell.

Well, our variety show is over, but more fun is about to begin at our favorite hangout, the T. A. C. We'll all meet down there and continue the reunion of the Class of 1950.

Signed: Erving Covert
Anne Parke

HISTORY

Now that we, the Senior Class of 1950, are leaving dear old Sanford High, and are going our different ways, we stop and look back over the past five happy years.

We began our sub-freshman year in 1946, not quite knowing the way around, but soon we began to settle down to business. Mr. M. A. McLeod was principal that year, and we chose Shelia Bell, class president; Edwin Farrell, vice-president; and Geraldine Womble, secretary.

We reached the ninth grade in 1947, and felt we really had a part in things. We joined the various clubs and other activities open to us, for now we actually were in high school. That year our class officers were: Lewis McBryde, president; Jack Murchison, vice-president; Jane Carswell, secretary; and Leonard Helton, treasurer. We also had a new principal, Mr. E. P. Pearce, and Mr. McLeod had been promoted and was the new superintendent of our school system.

The fun honestly began when we were Sophomores. That year many of our girls were chosen to be on the basketball team and the boys were quickly earning recognition in the various sports. Some of us were honored by being chosen waiters and waitresses by the Juniors for the Junior-Senior Banquet. Our class officers for the year 1948 were: president, Lewis McBryde; vice-president, Jack Murchison; secretary, Roger Bradley; and treasurer, Edwin Farrell.

One of the highlights of our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Banquet. We used "the Forty-Niners" as our theme and every one there had a wonderful time. We chose as our officers that year, Lewis McBryde, president; Edwin Farrell, vice-president; Pansy Riddle, secretary; and Mary Thornton Benson, treasurer. Edwin Farrell was elected president of the Student Council for the year 1949-50. The Seniors elected from our class to serve as marshals, Roger Bradley and Margaret Harrington Holcomb, chiefs; Russell Wicker, Margaret Pruett, Lewis McBryde, Janet Byerly, Edwin Farrell, and Mary Agnes Clark. Our Junior play, "Coming My Way," was a big success. The cast included Erving Covert, Margaret Holcomb, Roger Bradley, Dottie Clemmer, Gene Womack, Ann Glass, Pansy Riddle, Ralph Harrington, Bob West, Mary Thornton Benson, and Mary Agnes Clark.

And now, in the year of 1950, our happy high school years are coming to a close. Our officers are: Lewis McBryde, president; Roger Bradley, vice-president; Harriet West, secretary; and Dottie Clemmer, treasurer. Mr. McLeod we welcomed back wholeheartedly as principal with Mr. Clemmer as administrative assistant. Our Senior play, "Mumbo-Jumbo," was a huge success. The annual Junior-Senior Banquet, at which we were the honored guests, was one of the nicest ever given for any senior class. And now we will join the alumni.

CLASS POEM

Here's to thee, Dear Sanford High
Guiding like a star.
You've raised our goals beyond the sky
And made us what we are.

Here's to thee, Dear Sanford High
You've been so fair and kind
It's hard for us to say goodby
And leave school days behind.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

State of North Carolina

County of Lee—City of Sanford—School of Sanford High School

We, the Senior Class of 1950, of the aforesaid State, County, City, and School, being of sound mind and good character, realizing that the time is drawing near when we must depart from the realm of this great institution, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

SECTION I.—To Mr. M. A. McLeod we leave our sincere appreciation for the patient understanding and careful assistance he has given us.

SECTION II.—To Mr. H. A. Clemmer we leave our deepest thanks for all the things he has done for us.

SECTION III.—To the Faculty we leave our heartfelt gratitude for the way they have prepared us to meet the difficulties in the world before us. Also we leave them our deepest sympathy, knowing how much they will miss us.

SECTION IV.—To the Senior Class of 1951 we leave our position as seniors, confident that they will be able to fill it in such a way as to be a credit to our Alma Mater.

SECTION V.—To the Senior Class of 1975 we leave the privilege of being the first to graduate from the new Senior High School, realizing that it may be until that time before it will be completed.

ARTICLE II

I, Mary Thornton Benson, do leave my flirtatious ways to Pallie Stack. My "Venus form to Lois Fish.
I, Janet Byerly, do leave my high soprano voice to Carolyn Hackney, my dark curly hair to Sara Lore.
I, Mary Agnes Clark, do leave my dependability to Judy Hinson. I'll keep all my cute clothes for myself.
I, Dottie Clemmer, do leave my cute and versatile ways to "Stinky" Holland.
I, Betty Jean Cline, do leave my shyness to Cleone Cotton. My littleness "Snag" Moffitt can use.
I, Betty Reid Cole, do leave my unusual green eyes and my neatness to Patsy Poe.
I, Ann Glass, do leave my friendliness to Geneva Burges. My cute laugh I'll keep.
I, Betty Jean Harrington, do leave my responsibilities to Clarissa Griffin, knowing they will be fulfilled.
I, Grace Hunter, do leave my position as center on the basketball team to that girl who can qualify for it.
I, Louise Ingram, do leave my alto voice to Helen Covert, my guarding ability to anyone who can get it.
I, Bobby Johnson, do leave my sweet disposition to Betsy Green.
I, Kathryn Keith, do leave my many artistic abilities to Sandra Quillin.
I, Ann Norris, do leave my knowledge of Math to some lucky Junior. My quiet ways go to Bet Hamilton.
I, Ann Parke, do leave my wise and witty sayings to my brother John.
I, Carolyn Petty, do leave my position as the only girl school bus driver to any girl who can qualify for it.
I, Margaret Pruett, do leave my "never failing" winks at the boys to Marlene Porter.
I, Jessie Ann Rice, do leave my books on "How to Reduce" to Miss Bond. All my boy friends . . . . .
I, Pansy Riddle, do leave my love for arguments to Bobby Joe Key.
I, Elizabeth Spivey, do leave my easy-to-get-along-with ways to "Pudden" Cameron.
I, Vivian Spivey, do give the office back to Mrs. Seymore and Mr. Clemmer.
I, Inez Stevens, do leave my clarinet to Mr. Goodrich; my long hair to Mary Lou Jones.
I, Mary Jean Thomas, do leave my personality plus to Barbara Morgan.
I, Harriet West, do leave my "umph" to all the eighth grade girls, to be divided evenly.
I, Margaret Ann White, do leave my alluring smile to Shirley Ingram.
I, Joyce Woolard, do leave my saying "Well Sir" to anybody who will make a habit of it.
I, Stokes Barksdale, do leave my debating ability and my indifference to girls to Mickey Davenport.
I, Tull Beal, do leave my knowledge of cows and dairying to Billie Yarborough, if she wants it.
I, Roger Bradley, do leave my Chesterfields to Mr. Siegfried—my charm and Pat I'll keep.
I, Tommy Brame, do leave my brains and artistic ability to Robert Benson. My paintings, I'll save for myself.
I, Ronald Bridges, do leave my worrisome ways to my brother Bruce in hopes he can keep them alive.
I, Charles Briggs, do leave my loud voice to Norwood Eatmon.
I, Edwards Brooks, do leave my abilities in music to Mary Ann Lucas.
I, Willie Burns, do leave my nickname "Gruesome" to Fred Godfrey.
I, J. E. Capps, do leave my easy-going ways to Kemp Baldwin.
I, Erving Covert, do leave my classy clothes to Sammy Ingram—my cheerleading ability goes to Jimmy Gross.
I, Wayne Crowson, do leave my cuteness to Jimmy Love.
I, Edwin Farrell, do leave my superior intelligence to Jack Lyles.
I, Bill Gilliam, do leave my athletic abilities to any worthy successor.
I, Riley Godley, do leave my well mannered ways to Allen Finch.
I, Fulton Gregson, do leave my studious habits to Gene Womack.
I, Gene Hackney, do leave my "Scotch" cap to Miss Jackson (she likes it)—my sweet ways I'll keep.
I, Ralph Harrington, do leave my swoon-producing voice to Bobby Truelove. All my loves I must keep, if I can.
I, Billy Heins, do leave my manly physique to "Mutt" Hight—Miss Sasser can have all my witty wise-cracks.
I, Leonard Helton, do leave my position on the football team, as well as my curly hair, to my brother "Bugs."
I, Gene Hutchens, do leave my sportsmanship to Glenn Lee. He will take good care of it.
I, Dudley Knight, do leave my flowing generosity to Reggie Miller—the "A" I'll keep.
I, Thomas Lee, do leave my short frame to Billy Southern.
I, Pete Lloyd, do leave my popularity to Jimmy Caddell.
I, Johnny McBryde, do leave my cigars to Allen Chilton—my happy-go-lucky ways to Billy Burkhead.
I, Lewis McBryde, do leave the presidency of the Senior Class to a Junior. My versatility I'll need.
I, Raymond McDonald, do leave my ways with the women to Billy Watson.
I, Duncan McIver, do leave my lean, lanky frame to Micky Davenport.
I, Sam McNeil, do leave my witty ways to my good buddy Jack Sanders.
I, Jack Murchison, do leave all my affections to the gals of S.H.S. A certain Asheville cutie I'll keep.
I, Harry Norris, do give the D.O. class back to Mrs. Hester.
I, Bobby Patterson, do leave my "smoothie" ways to Roger Morrow.
I, Bobby Simmons, do leave all my love to the Junior girls.
I, Carlos Simmons, do leave my racing ability to Billy Cranford, who needs it.
I, Bobby Stewart, do leave my baseball ability to Bobby Brown—to all the girls my lovely complexion.
I, Billy Wallace, do leave "Macbeth" and my abilities to Miss Sasser.
I, Bob West, do leave my red hair to Alice Scott McIver.
I, Jimmy Wicker, do leave my laziness to Fred Ingram.
I, Russell Wicker, do leave my "slick" ways to Frank Dowdy.
I, Max Williams, do leave my athletic ability to the future athletes of S.H.S.
I, Bob Wilson, do leave my high voice to Yancey Elliott.
I, Carol Yarborough, do leave my "Bluefield Milk Route" to Paul Lucas.

YELLOW JACKETS

THE SEASON

They had worked long and hard; the setting sun had seen them at work often as they drilled over and over again the plays that were going to win games this year. The 1949 football season was highlighted by the one word, work. For many weeks the coaches, Winston Siegfried and S. Del Mastro, had drilled the "Jackets," therefore, when the "Wildcats" of Chapel Hill came charging to meet them and open the season, the "Jackets" were ready. The "Wildcats" were undefeated and untied the previous year and had hopes of stretching the streak this afternoon, but the Sanford '49'ers had different ideas, and when the wounded had been counted and the score tabulated, the "Jackets" and the "Cats" were all tied up, 6-6.

This hard fighting spirit that was shown in the first contest was apparent all season, as the "Jackets" went on to win the District Four flag. This year's edition of the football "Jackets" fought hard each and every game . . . it was this "never say die" attitude combined with good football fundamentals that won for them the respect of every team they faced.

The 1949 football season was a success for the Sanford High School "Yellow Jackets" in more ways than one. The won and lost column speaks for itself. The conference championship is another indication of the season's success. But most of all the football season was a success because the boys went out there, fought hard, and "got there fustest with the mostest."

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

In basketball as in a Broadway production, sportsmanship is as important as talent. The girls' basketball team of Sanford High have as their stage the Sanford Armory and other hardwoods; their setting is in screaming crowds and their drama shows sportsmanship and keen competition.

Offering plenty of thrills, the veteran Sanford lassies came out on the big end of the score in most of the games played.

Led by Grace Hunter Cameron, the high scoring forwards Pallie Stack, Mary Lou Jones and Dottie Clemmer showed sports fans some splendid teamwork.

Sanford's strong defense consisted of Louise Ingram, Kathryn Keith, Lu Ann Thomas, with reserves Carolyn Yarboro and Marian Hall.

Much credit should be given to Coach Frank Shaver, who has molded a fine team of which we can justly be proud.

If you took time to look under the B's in the encyclopedia you would find the heading, "Basketball," and an explanation of the game.

However, the facts in black and white are not as exciting as watching the Sanford High "Yellow Jackets" turn in a fine performance on the hardwood.

And in the good ole Sanford tradition the cagers of 1949-1950 have seen a fine basketball season from all angles, and a vast improvement over last year.

Lettermen filled most positions. Paced by Harrison Makeever's accurate shooting and passing, Lewis McBryde and Bean Gilliam always turned in a good game. Outstanding also were Davenport, Stewart, Wicker, Hutchens, Williams and Crowson.

Sanford High should be proud of its 1949-1950 cagers and their coach, H. A. Clemmer.

BASEBALL

In Sanford a love for baseball is apparent after the first April shower, as forty youthful candidates greeted Coach Clemmer for the first practice of 1949. Six key men from the '48 team, which had won the Eastern Championship, were not on hand. A cloud of gloom hovered about the field, but not for long. Sunshine always drives away clouds and several shining newcomers took the field. These, playing with the returning lettermen, gave the Jackets the combination they needed, and the season proved to be a successful one. The Yellow Jackets went off to the baseball wars with a fighting spirit that carried them through many a contest which would have been lost otherwise. Good sportsmanship, a fighting spirit, and good baseball combined to give the Jackets the punch that rewarded Coach Clemmer. He had not expected such a successful season; he was building for "next year." Then "next year" should be the big baseball year for Sanford High.

TRACK

The 1949 track team was the second postwar fielding of a track squad at Sanford High. With the majority of the team consisting of inexperienced men, the season's start was rather slow, but after many long hours of practice, the squad found itself and finished the season by defeating a strong Fayetteville team twice, once in Fayetteville and once at home.

Captain Duncan Redditt, a track letterman, hurled the discus and the shot put, ran the half mile and was a member of the strong relay team, which also included Jack Murchison, Bennett Barksdale, Leonard Helton, Lewis McBryde, Wayne Crowson, and Wilson Quick.

Lewis McBryde, Wilson Quick and Bennett Barksdale gave the "Jackets" a competent trio in the 100 yard dash and the 220.

Jack Murchison ran the 440, and Carlos Simmons and Wayne Crowson gave our team a strong bid for mile honors. Leonard Helton and Duncan Redditt won honors in the half-mile.

Albert Rose hurled the javelin with Max Williams, who was also the "Jackets'" broad jump contender.

Johnny McBryde was our entrant in the pole vault, and our boys won honors in the high jump also.

All in all the track team had a good season as they showed again that Sanford High can be tops in anything, with a little encouragement and support.

THE MOLE HOLE

"Let's go to the Mole Hole" is a quite familiar cry around school. The "Mole Hole" is our student store which is sponsored by the Student Council. It was started by this organization in the fall of 1948.

After much looking for a place to open the student store, the present location was selected as the most accessible to the students, and best situated for the purpose. Immediately work was begun to get the place ready for use. This was accomplished by the members of the Student Council and the Shop Students.

. The store was christened "The Mole Hole" and had its grand opening early in the spring of '49. The enterprise was a huge success from the beginning and has been even more successful in the year '49-'50. It has become the most popular gathering place for the entire student body.
